In 2025, consolidated sales revenues totaled 198,514 million baht, a rise of 20.3% and 35.4% from 2024 and 2023, respectively, primarily driven by a continued expansion of power electronics business following increased demand for data-center energy-management solutions. The uptrend aligns to capital expenditures (CAPEX) from major cloud service providers, who are continuously enhancing their artificial intelligence (AI) capabilities, in line with broad-based demand for AI applications.

Sales revenues breakdown by geographic location

In 2025, sales revenues proportion in North America increased from 29% to 35%, on the other hand, the Asia market's sales revenues proportion dropped from 44% to 39%. Revenue from the European market remained stable at 26%

Exchange Rate Impact

Foreign exchange posted a gain of 315 million baht in 2025, in comparison with a loss of 70 million baht in 2024. Throughout 2025, US dollar has depreciated significantly especially in the second half of the year based on market expectations of multiple interest rate cuts by FED in 2025. Nevertheless, the company implements a prudent hedging policy leading to a gain on exchange this year.

Cost of sales and expenses

Cost of sales

In 2025, cost of sales accounted for 72.9% of total sales, compare to 75.4% and 77.1% for 2024 and 2023 respectively, In 2025 Gross profit margin posted an improvement Y-o-Y supported by a strong sales growth in healthy-margin products, especially the power electronics for custom-designed data centers power system supporting intensive AI computing.

Selling and administrative expenses

Selling and administrative expenses (including research and development) in 2025, rose by 20.5% and 76.2% from 2024 and 2023, respectively due mainly to higher selling expenses from customs duties following the U.S. administration began imposing reciprocal tariff policies in 2025. The transaction gave rise to export duty expenses paid in advance by the Company on behalf of customers. Upon reimbursement by the customers, the amount would be recognized as revenue per the accounting principles. Besides, R&D expenses in 2025 increased in line with the strategy to expand regional innovation capabilities to support global customers.

Net profit

The company's Operating Profit in 2025 was 13.3%, compare to 10.8% and 12.3% in 2024 and 2023 respectively, based on an increase in gross profit with effective control of expenditure as mentioned earlier. Although the Company began recognizing a top-up tax expense of THB 3,438 million in 2025 following the implementation of the domestic top-up tax in Thailand to comply with the Global

Minimum Tax (Pillar Two) rules, despite such tax factors, the Company was able to generate a Net Profit for the year 2025 at 12.5% or 24,814 million baht compare to 11.5% and 12.6% in 2024 and 2023, respectively.
